Looking forward to meet you soon. Best regards, Sooraj Dhawan

From the Executive Director's Desk

Dear Industry Colleagues,

Exhibitions industry in India is witnessing a positively busy period with most of the shows outperforming the expected results. It is time to push our limits to bring our industry back to business as usual with full force. Global Exhibitions Day is one such occasion when we celebrate the vibrancy and vitality of exhibitions. Once again, we all will raise our collective voices for highlighting the importance of exhibitions as economic growth engines. As the Voice of the Indian Exhibitions Industry, IEIA will lead the way taking along all our stakeholders and esteemed members for advocating and promoting the Living up to its mandate, your association has again strived its best to serve the members by way of various industry focussed initiatives. Pleased to share that the long-awaited release of NESCO and CIDCO exhibition centres in Mumbai has been confirmed by the authorities after rigorous follow ups and advocacy representations to the Govt. of Maharashtra. Another very important initiative on Standards Development for the exhibitions sector is being spearheaded by IEIA under the aegis of the Bureau of Indian Standards (BIS).

Also, extremely glad to share that the Pilot Project of IEIA's very ambitious Skills Training and Certification Program would be launched on the 4th of June, 2022 at BIEC, Bengaluru. Members of IEIA's Skilling Sub-Committee have been pro-actively working for this cause. Last but not the least, the Executive Committee has announced IEIA's physical events calendar for the remaining part of 2022 ensuring the best of networking opportunities and support for the members of the association. Would like to urge you to keep sharing your wonderful suggestions and feedback aimed at the progress of the membership and the industry at large.

With best wishes for very successful and prosperous times ahead. Warm regards, Nidhi Sharma
